UMC Summer Camps Inspire, Educate, and Entertain

By Krista Lemos, Pam Holsinger-Fuchs on Tuesday, May 9, 2006

CROOKSTON, MN (May 8, 2006) – From enhancing leadership skills and improving riding techniques to constructing video games and honing athletic prowess, there's a myriad of summer activities geared for youth happening at the University of Minnesota Crookston (UMC) campus.

UMC will host six different summer camps in June and July designed to provide a combination of instruction and recreation for children ages 5 to 15 and youth 16 to 22. Register today to secure a spot.

Sign up for one of the following summer camp opportunities and create great memories that will inspire, education, and entertain:

TECHNOLOGY

UMC Cyber Camp June 18 – 22. Learn about the math and physics behind simulating the natural world, fundamentals of how a game works, and how to program simple games. UMC Cyber Camp, sponsored by the Math, Science and Technology Department, also features hands-on training with commercial game editors and overall game design. Open to ages 16-22. Cost is $300 per person. For more details, visit www.umcrookston.edu/camps or call 218-281-8380.

SPORTS

UMC Golden Eagle Athletics presents:
Girl's Basketball Individual Skills Camp June 19-22. This camp will introduce young players to the game of basketball and challenge older players to develop their skills. Activities include individual drills as well as competitive games and fun. Open to kindergarten thru grade 8. Cost is $50 per person.

Women's Basketball Team Camp June 24-25. The camp will allow high school teams the opportunity to compete against quality competition. This camp is open to all high school varsity and junior varsity teams. Teams are guaranteed at least five games. Open to high school varsity and junior varsity teams. Cost is $250 per team.
For more details on the basketball camps sponsored by the UMC Athletics Department, call 218-281-8423.

EQUITATION CAMP

Western Equestrian Camp July 27-29. This camp features a hands-on learning portion which includes grooming techniques, proper tacking techniques, and riding lessons. Classroom activities are also available where participants will learn about nutrition, health, and basic equine management. The camp is sponsored by the Agriculture Department. Open to ages 13-18. Cost is $300 per person. For more details, call 218-281-8101.

LEADERSHIP

Students Today, Leaders Forever (STLF), Leadership Camp, "Dare to Lead" June 25-30. Students will be challenged to find the strengths within, to forever grow upon these strengths, and to use these strengths to lead "outside the box" and inspire others. Participants will build transferable and valuable skills, allowing students to make positive changes in their schools, in their communities, and in the world. Open to grades 9-12. Cost is $495 per person. For more details on the camp sponsored by STLF, call 701-361-7274.

Rotary Youth Leadership Award Camp July 9-15. Youth participate in a week of intense leadership training. Activities include a combination of challenging physical and mental activities, speakers, and discussion. Sponsored by Rotary International, District 5580, the camp features outstanding speakers from all over the region, discussion groups, and sessions with volunteer Rotarian staff members. Open to ages 16-8. For more details on registration and costs, call 218-281-8585.
